If money can head war off there will be no war. But American patriotism will outshine gold.

B. B. Cahoon has published a letter in the Poplar Bluff Citizen explaining his work in the appointment of the postmaster at Poplar Bluff.

The Populists of Missouri are not in a hurry for fusion this year. The Democrats failed to pay up in 1896. Hereafter the Pops will demand cash in advance.

If Uncle Sam don't get to whip the Spaniards the people of this country will be a disappointed people. The American people want to fight. They are ready to fight, and they know how.

Labor Commissioner Roselle has a soft job. Mr. Roselle was not at the head of the Populist party in this state for fun, neither was he there for his health. He was getting himself ready for something soft, and he got what he was looking for.

Among the people offering their services to Uncle Sam, in case of war with Spain, we notice in the Globe-Democrat, that Warren T. Stewart Camp, No. 14, Sons of Veterans, of this city, are mentioned. Our boys are all right. They mean what they say, too.

When you come to Cape Girardeau and meet a man with a cock eye, you have met an editor, and when you meet another man with a black eye, you have met another editor. The man with the cock eye writes poetry; the man with the black eye writes facts.

The Democratic Congressional Convention, for the Fourteenth Congressional District, will be held at Poplar Bluff, on the 22nd of June. So far there are only two candidates in the field for the nomination—Vandiver and Hawkins. It begins to look like a walk over for Vandiver.

If President McKinley does not let Uncle Sam kick again his name will be Dennis Henderson. The people of this country are again a-bleking, and they are ready and anxious to pay tribute. If we have no war with Spain the Democrats will sweep the country in 1898, and we will have hell right here at home.

It is said that J. L. Fort, who is a candidate for circuit judge in the 22nd Judicial Circuit, is fighting Congressman Vandiver—not openly but secretly. The first thing Mr. Fort knows every Methodist preacher in the 14th Congressional District will be preaching his political funeral.

The Populists of this county, at a mass meeting held at Jackson, April 2nd, declared against fusion. The leaders of the Populist party are tired of being nearly the Democrats as the money men get out. They propose to put a county ticket in the field this year. This move of the Pops is a desideratum for the Democrats. It removes all chances for a court contest this year.

When than man Hawkins, of Dunklin county, enters the convention hall against W. D. Vandiver for the Democratic nomination for congress, he should remember that inscription on the gates in London: "He who enters here leaves all hope behind." It will take a bigger man than Hawkins to down Vandiver in a Democratic convention.

John A. Snider is a candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress. John knows the "ropes" in the race for office, and he is known as one of the best vote gatherers in Southeast Missouri. He has been over all the roads and traveled all the gaits. In plain English he is a hustler. He will go before the convention with a strong following.

FOR PEACE OR WAR!

Attention of the World Focused On the United States Senate.

MOMENTOUS QUESTIONS INVOLVED.

The Resolutions Proposed by the Foreign Relations Committee Under Consideration for More than Six Hours Without Action Being Reached.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—The attention of the civilized world is focused upon the senate of the United States. Upon its action, probably, depends the momentous question of war between this country and Spain.

The action of the house of representatives yesterday in adopting resolutions looking to armed intervention in the Cuban rebellion transferred the center of interest and action from one end of the great marble capitol to the other.

On the senate, as was iterated and reiterated on the floor yesterday, rests the responsibility for delay or action.

For more than six hours the senate has been deliberating upon the resolutions proposed by the committee on foreign relations under consideration. The speeches delivered upon the various phases of the situation were eloquent, spirited and vehement, as all of them disclosed no irreconcilable differences among those who spoke. All were in favor of action in some form by the government of the United States.

The most radical difference was as to whether the resolutions should be adopted as they are, or simply declare for armed intervention with a view to the ultimate freedom and independence of the Cuban people.

The speakers were Mr. Turner (Wash.), Mr. Hoar (Mass.), Mr. Tamm (Ind.), Mr. Gray (Del.) and Mr. Fairbanks (Iowa). They were accorded the most profound attention both by senators on the floor and by the throngs in the galleries.

Among those who listened to a part of the debate were Sir Julian Pauncefote and a considerable number of the diplomatic corps. Speaker Reed, Mr. Justice Harlan, of the supreme court, and Hon. W. J. Bryan. The speeches were interspersed with sharp and spirited colloquies, some of which caused intense excitement in the galleries. Many times the applause both on the floor and in the galleries was tumultuous, and the vice-president was obliged more than once to warn the speakers that no demonstrations were to be permitted.

Within a few minutes of adjournment a genuine riot was created by the efforts of the speakers to subvert the proceedings, and by the attempt made to stop the session until a vote could be taken.

The vice-president, directly addressed the galleries, and ordered that the applause should cease. Several every now and then was on his feet, and the main issue in front of the vice-president's desk was crowded with senators.

"The chair is full out of order," shouted Mr. Gray loudly. "He has no right to do this to the people in the galleries."

"Such a thing was never done before in the senate," declared Mr. Bates (Tenn.).

"The applause was started by senators on the floor," some one shouted from the crowd in front of the vice-president's desk.

"I started it myself," explained Mr. Mason (Illa.), "and am prepared to assume the responsibility for it."

After vainly endeavoring on two occasions to agree to a time for vote upon the resolutions, and after voting down a motion to adjourn, the senate finally, amid much confusion, agreed to adjourn until ten o'clock today.

STEAMING COAL IN JAMAICA.

A Hint that Uncle Sam Should Not be Slow to Avail Himself of Chance for a Victory.

KINGSTON, April 15.—The colonial authorities here say that until specific instructions to the contrary are received from the home government, coal will not be regarded as contraband of war. There are now 2,500 tons of Welsh and American steaming coal in Jamaica ports, and it will be sold to any purchaser, Spanish or American. The British government has not yet sent special neutrality directions here. It is semi-officially stated that the increase in the force of the British fleet and the reinforcing of the garrison here are measures taken to prepare for the enforcement of neutrality in anticipation of war between the United States and Spain.

The officials of the colonial government regard the possibility of a United States protectorate over Cuba as likely to be harmful to Jamaica, as they say it would engage capital for the former island that would otherwise be employed here. The British consul at Santiago de Cuba, F. W. Ramsden, who has charge of American interests there, cables that all is quiet at that port.

SITUATION VERY SERIOUS.

Senor Sagasta Deems It Advisable to Expedite the Opening of the Cortes.

MADRID, April 15.—At the cabinet meeting yesterday the premier, Senor Sagasta, made a statement on the subject of the recent developments of the Cuban situation, as affected by events in Washington. He declared the situation was very serious and while pointing out that "the debates in congress have no legal value," he said he deemed it advisable to expedite the reopening of the cortes in order to allow the national opinion and its representatives to declare the will of the people, and to enable the government to act in accordance with the nation.

DECISIVE MEASURES.

Notification to Spain and Action to be Simultaneous.

IMPOSING NAVAL DEMONSTRATION.

While Havana is Being Menaced by Our Fleet the Army Will be Mobilized Ready for a Prompt Invasion of Cuba.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—Simultaneously with notification to Spain to quit Cuba a big naval and military demonstration will be ordered by the president. The naval demonstration will be the most imposing and with the deepest motives in view. It is not probable that the president will order the bombardment of Havana before Spain delivers her answer. The Key West fleet, probably reinforced by that of Commodore Schley, will be ordered to appear within fighting distance of Havana. There the fleet will await the final order to begin real work.

It would not be surprising should the fleet make its appearance before Havana by Monday next. Many persons here believe to-day that the American flag will be floating over Havana within a week.

Administration circles believe that Spain will not strike the first blow. She will follow our steps and act entirely on the defensive, doing everything possible to gain the sympathy of Europe, the idea being to ultimately gain the aid of some of the European countries.

While the naval demonstration is being made around Havana troops will be pouring to the southern seacoast for the purpose of being put into Cuba as soon as the navy has cleared the way, and to also act in defending the fortifications of southern cities.

It is probable that the militia of the various states will be called into service the day the navy is ordered to move.

Of course, any programme at this time is based upon the present outlook. It is rapidly changing, but the future appears to be so clearly visible that high officials speculate freely along the lines indicated.

A NECESSARY PRECAUTION.

The Navy Department to Give Out no News of the Movement of War Vessels.

WASHINGTON, April 15.—The most pronounced feature of the naval demonstration programme was the restriction of all other proceedings to giving out of movements of vessels. Sir is the beginning of the present crisis the department has been extremely cautious in the face of information, and yesterday the official order went out that the movement of posting ship movements should cease. It was explained that in view of existing conditions this was deemed necessary and heretofore no movements whatever will be made public.

One more auxiliary cruiser was purchased yesterday by the revenue vessels of the navy. She will immediately be sent to ship yard for refitting.

Secretary Long stated at the close of office hours that the steamships Paris and New York had not yet passed into the possession of the department. It is understood, however, that as soon as terms can be secured these vessels will be placed on the naval list along with the St. Louis and St. Paul of the same line.

It is also stated that negotiations are under way for the purchase of the Holland steamships, a fleet of six.

The department is now awaiting the report of the board which was ordered to inspect the naval craft.

GENERAL WEYLER IN MADRID.

The Governor of Cuba is Reported to be in the Spanish Capital, Demonstrations Expected.

MADRID, April 15.—Gen. Weyler, the former commander of Cuba, arrived in Madrid yesterday, apparently being called here by the government. He was met at the railroad station by Gen. Prat in full uniform and many attendants, military and civil. The governor of Madrid prohibited the demonstrations which it was proposed to make, and adopted precautionary measures.

There was a detachment of police at the station; there were policemen in the streets through which the general passed, and police officers were stationed even within the entrance to the general's residence.

From the railroad station the former captain-general was driven to his home, accompanied by Senor Mesanena, a member of the chamber of deputies. When questioned on the subject, Gen. Weyler refused to say he was called to Madrid by the government, but he added:

"I have indeed offered my services to the queen. I consider war with America inevitable, or Cuba is lost to Spain. I believe war is preferable to a continuation of the prolonged tension between Washington and Madrid."

Our New Cruisers Sighted Off Fire Island.

NEW YORK, April 15.—The United States cruisers San Francisco and New Orleans were sighted south of Fire Island at 3:54 yesterday afternoon bound in. They left Halifax Tuesday morning, where they had put in for coal on their way from London for New York.

NEW YORK, April 15.—The United States cruisers San Francisco and New Orleans passed in at Sandy Hook at 7:45 p. m. yesterday.
